

WOLF PACK WELCOME 2023

Wolf Pack Welcome (WPW) kicks off the fall semester for the newest members of the Pack! There are a variety of programs to help you prepare for classes, meet other incoming students, participate in Loyola traditions, and more. Key events at WPW are mandatory for all first-year students, both residential and commuter. These are denoted with one asterisk (*).

Check out the Parent & Caregiver Schedule

There is a separate schedule for parents and caregivers. Please visit the Guidebook app for the gold track schedule.

Eat in the Orleans Room or In the City

Dine in the Orleans Room or try a local restaurant! Incoming students should use their meal plan to access the Orleans Room. Guest meal prices: $10.25 for breakfast, and $13.25 for brunch, lunch, and dinner.

Take your Family Photo

Get to NOLA

There are tons of places to explore in New Orleans! Check the "Get to NOLA" section under the Resource & Documents tab in the Guidebook app to see offers and recommendations that are available for you to explore in the city. Students can get 2 extra tickets for Get to NOLA programming during Wolf Pack Welcome for family members. For tickets, visit Havoc's Help Desk, lower level, Danna Student Center. While supplies last.

Take Care of Business

The bookstore and university offices are open M-F from 8:30AM-4:45PM. Use this time to explore campus.

Access

Need accommodations during Wolf Pack Welcome? Please contact getinvolved@loyno.edu.

Decompression Zones

Decompression zones are available in both the Satchmo's Lounge and the Magis Lounge. These are located in the Danna Student Center on the bottom floor.
